Diversity UK stands down its Advisory Board & Millennial Advisory Board

31 March 2022, London: After two years under a global pandemic and following eighteen months of organisational development work, the Trustees of Diversity UK are announcing that they are standing down the legacy Diversity UK Advisory Board and the Diversity UK Millennial Advisory Board with immediate effect.

'We are grateful to the many individuals, past and present, who have given their knowledge, time and skills in support of our work to educate the public about diversity and inclusion in the workplace.'

However, the workplace post-pandemic is a significantly different place and we need to look to the future when building and developing our governance structure as we plan our strategy for the years to come.'
